(4) A subscriber who is granted selection time scale of pay or senior scale of pay assigned to the post held by him, in accordance with the provision of the Karnataka Civil Services (Time bound Advancement) Rules, 1983 or the Karnataka Civil Services (Automatic Grant of Special Promotion to Senior Scale of pay) Rules, 1991 shall so effect such further subscription as will make the total subscription equal to amount which shall not be less than the minimum amount of the monthly subscription prescribed for the said selection time scale of pay or senior scale of pay, as the case may be.

(5) The amount of subscription shall be expressed in whole rupees.

(6) For the purposes of sub-rule (1) the average pay of a subscriber shall be-

(a) In the case of a subscriber who was in Government service on the 31st March of the preceding year the average pay to which he was entitled on that date:

Provided that:-

- (i) if the subscriber was on leave on the said date and elected not to subscribe during such leave or was under suspension on the said date, his average pay shall be the average pay to which he was entitled on the first day after his return to duty.
- (ii) if the subscriber was on deputation out of India on the said date or was on leave on the said date and continues to be on leave and has elected to subscribe during such leave, his average pay shall be the average pay to which he would have been entitled had he been on duty in India;
- (iii) if the subscriber joined the Fund for the first time under the operation of rule 5, on a day subsequent to the said date, his average pay shall be the emoluments to which he was entitled on such subsequent date;

(b) In the case of a subscriber who was not in Government service on the 31st March of the preceding year the average pay to which he was entitled on the first day of his service or, if he joined the Fund for the first time under operation of rule 5, on a date subsequent to the first day of his service, the average pay to which he was entitled on such subsequent date.

(7) The subscriber shall intimate the fixation of the amount of his monthly subscription in each year in the following manner:-

(a) If he was on duty on the 31st March of the preceding year, by the deduction which he makes in this behalf from his pay bill for that month;

(b) If he was on leave on the 31st March of the preceding year and elected not to subscribe during such leave, or was under suspension on that date, by the deduction which he makes in this behalf from his pay bill for after his return to duty;

(c) If he has entered Government service for the first time during the year or if he is compulsorily required to join the Fund from a particular date under rule 5 or joins the Fund for the first time by the deduction which he makes in this behalf from his pay bill for the month during which he joins the Fund;

(d) If he was on leave on the 31st March of the preceding year and continues to be on leave and has elected to subscribe during such leave by the deduction which he causes to be made in this behalf from his salary bill for that month;

(e) If he was on foreign service on the 31st March of the preceding year by the amount credited by him into the treasury on account of subscription for the month of April in the current year.

(8) Government servants are permitted to enhance or reduce the rate of subscription to the General Provident Fund once at any time during the course of the year and the amount of subscription so fixed shall remain unchanged during that year.

(9) (i) Subscription to General Provident Fund shall be stopped six months prior to the date of retirement of subscriber;

(ii) All the Controlling Officers should obtain and send the final withdrawal applications, complete in all respects, two months prior to retirement after recovery is stopped to enable the Accountant General to arrange authorization on the dates of retirement of the subscribers;

(iii) No temporary advance under these rules shall be sanctioned during the last six months of service of subscribers;

(iv) While sanctioning any temporary advance to subscribers at any time prior to the period of stoppage of subscriptions, the authority competent to sanction the advance shall fix the number of installments of recovery of the advance in such a manner that the advance is recovered fully six months prior to the date on which subscribers to the fund attain the age of superannuation; and

13. Transfer to Foreign Service or Deputation.-(1) When a subscriber is transferred to Foreign Service or sent on deputation out of India, he shall remain subject to the rules of the Fund in the same manner as if he were not so transferred or sent on deputation.

(2) Sanctioning Authority in respect of Government servants deputed to Zilla Panchayat.- In respect of Government servants deputed to the Zilla Panchayat, the sanctioning Authority shall be:-

- (i) The Chief Executive Officer to Zilla Panchayats, in the case of Gazetted Officers;
- (ii) The Head of the Office in the Zilla Panchayats, in the case of others, to sanction temporary advance under Rules 16 and 17 and Partial Final withdrawal under Rules 27, 28, 29, 30 and 31 based on the latest statement of accounts furnished by Accountant General and the subsequent subscription if any made by the Government servant.

Note.- (i) In the case of Partial, Final Withdrawal from the fund, the actual drawal of the amount is to be done only on the issue of authorization, by the Accountant General.

(ii) The applications for Partial, Final Withdrawal from the Fund, shall be forwarded through the District Head of the Department under the Zilla Panchayat, in which the official is working.]

14. Realization of Subscriptions.- (1) When emoluments are drawn from a Government Treasury recovery of subscriptions on account of these emoluments and of the advances shall be made from the emoluments themselves.

(2) When emoluments are drawn from any other source, the subscriber shall remit his dues monthly to the Treasury in Form-4.

Provided that in the case of a subscriber on deputation or foreign service to a body corporate owned or controlled by the Government, the such body should remit General Provident Fund subscription of the subscriber on deputation or on foreign service directly to Government Account in cash, preparing separate challan, department wise;

Provided further that a copy of Provident Fund Schedule marked "Advance Schedule" with a copy of challan duly authenticated should be sent to the Accountant General directly by the foreign employers and not by the Treasury. The challan shall be in Form-5.

(3) If a Government servant fails to subscribe with effect from the date on which he is required to join the Fund under Rule 4 (5), the total amount due to the Fund on account of arrears of subscription shall, with interest thereon at the rate provided in Rule 14, forthwith be paid by the subscriber to the Fund, or in default be ordered by the Account Officer to be recovered by deduction from the emoluments of the subscriber by instalments or otherwise, as may be directed by the authority competent to sanction an advance for the grant of which, special reasons are required under clause (c) of rule 15.

15. Interests to the fund.- (1) Subject to the provisions of sub-rule (5) of this rule Government shall pay to the credit of the account of a subscriber interest at such rate as may be fixed by Government from time to time.

(2) Interest shall be credited with effect from last day in each year in the following manner, namely:-

- (i) On the amount at the credit of a subscriber on the last day of the preceding year, less any sums withdrawn during the current year-interest for twelve months;
- (ii) on sums withdrawn during the current year-interest from the beginning of the current year up to the last day of the month preceding the month of withdrawal;
- (iii) on all sums credited to the subscriber's account after the last day of the preceding year interest from the date of deposit up to the end of the current year;
- (iv) the total amount of interest shall be rounded to the nearest whole rupee (Fifty Naye Paise counting as the next higher rupee):

Provided that when the amount standing at the credit of a subscriber has become payable, interest shall thereupon be credited under this rule in respect only of the period from the beginning of the current year or from the date of deposit, as the case may be, up to the date on which the amount standing at the credit of the subscriber became payable.

(3) In this rule, the date of deposit shall in the case of recovery from emoluments, be deemed to be the first day of the month in which it is recovered; and in the case of an amount remitted by the subscriber, the date of deposit shall be deemed to the first day of the month of receipt, if it is credited before the fifth day of that month, but if it is received on or after the fifth day of that month, it shall be deemed to be the first day of the next succeeding month:

Provided that where there has been a delay in the drawal of pay of leave salary and allowances of a subscriber and consequently delay in the recovery of subscription towards the fund, the interest on such subscription shall be payable from the month in which the pay or leave salary of the subscriber was due under the rules, irrespective of the month in which it was actually drawn:

Provided further that where the emoluments for a month are drawn on the last working day of the same month the date of deposit shall in the case of recovery of his subscriptions, be deemed to be the first day of the succeeding month:

Provided also that in the case of an amount forwarded in accordance with the proviso to sub-rule (2) of Rule 14, the date of deposit shall be deemed to be the first day of the month, if it is received by the Accounts Officer before the fifteenth day of that month.

(4) In addition to any amount to be paid under rules 19, 20 and 21, interest thereon up to the end of the month preceding that in which the payment is made or upto 6 months from the date necessitating the payments, shall be payable to the person to whom such amount is to be paid:

Provided that where the Account Officer has intimated to that person (or his agent) a date on which he is prepared to make payment in cash, or has posted an authorization for payment to that person, interest shall be payable only up to the end of the month preceding the date so intimated, or the date of posting authorization, as the case may be.

(5) Interest shall not be credited to the account of a Mohammedan subscriber if he informs the Accounts Officer that he does not wish to receive it, but if he subsequently asks for interest, it shall be credited which effect from the first day of the year in which he asks for it.

(6) The interest on amounts which under sub-rule (3) of Rule 14, sub-rule (5) of Rule 17, Rules 19 and 20, and sub-rule (3) of para 3, sub-rule (4) of para 5, sub-rule (1) of para 7, sub-rule (1) or (2) of para 8 of the Annexure, are replaced at the credit of the subscriber in the Fund, shall be calculated at such rates as may be successively prescribed under sub-rule (1) of this rule and so far as may be in the manner prescribed in this rule.

(7) In case a subscriber is found to have drawn from the fund an amount in excess of the amount standing to his credit on the date of the drawal, the overdrawn amount, irrespective of whether the overdraw occurred in the course of an advance or a withdrawal of the final payment from the fund, shall be repaid by him with interest thereon, in one lump sum, or in default, be ordered to be recovered by deduction in one lump sum from the emoluments of the subscriber. If the total amount to be recovered is more than half of the subscriber's emoluments, recoveries shall be made in monthly installments of moieties of his emoluments till the entire amount together with interest is recovered. For this sub-rule, the rate of interest to be charged on overdrawn amount would be two and half percent over and above the normal rate of Provident Fund balances, applicable at the relevant period. The interest realized on the overdrawn amount shall be credited to Government Account under the Head 049, Interest Receipts, D-7 Other Receipts, IV Other Items 6. Interest on overdrawals from Provident Fund.

16. Advances from the Fund.- A temporary advance (which should be a sum expressed in whole rupees) may be granted to a subscriber from the amount standing to his credit in the Fund at the discretion of the appropriate authority specified in the Schedule, subject to the following conditions, in Form-6 & Form-7.

(a) No advance shall be granted unless the sanctioning authority is satisfied that the applicant's pecuniary circumstances, justify it, and that it will be expended on the following object or objects and not otherwise.-

- (i) to pay expenses in connection with the prolonged illness of the applicant or any person actually dependent on him.
- (ii) to pay for the overseas passage for reasons of health or education of the applicant or any person actually dependent on him;
- (iii) to pay obligatory expenses on a scale appropriate to the applicant's status which, by customary usage, the applicant has to incur in connection with marriages, funerals, first annual shradha ceremonies or other ceremonies of persons actually dependent on him:

Provided that the condition of actual dependence shall not apply in the case of son or daughter of the subscriber.

Provided further that the condition of actual dependence shall not apply in the case of an advance required to meet the funeral expenses of the parent of a subscriber.

Note 1.-Advances under sub-clause (iii) are also permissible for meeting expenditure in connection with marriage and other ceremonies of the subscriber himself/herself.

Note 2.- Advances under sub-clause (iii) shall also be admissible for meeting the expenses in connection with the first annual Shradha Ceremonies of close relatives of the applicant.

- (iv) to pay for education outside India, whether, for an academic, technical, professional or vocational course of the applicant or any person actually dependent on him;
- (v) to pay for medical, engineering and other technical or specialized courses in India beyond the High School stage of the applicant or any person actually dependent on him provided that the course of study is not less than three years.

Note.- A subscriber shall be permitted to take an advance once in every six months under sub-clauses (iv) and (v);

Provided that the Government may, at its discretion, in special circumstances, sanction an advance if it is satisfied that the subscriber concerned requires the advance for reasons other than those mentioned above:

(b) Temporary advance from the Fund shall not be sanctioned after the final withdrawal application of the subscriber has been sent to the Accountant General, Karnataka, Bangalore.

(c) The sanctioning authority shall record in writing its reason for granting the advance.

(d) Advance shall except for special reasons.-

- (i) pay subject to a maximum of eighty percent of the balance at the credit of the subscriber in the Fund, or be granted until at least twelve months after the final repayment of all previous advances:

Provided that if the reason is of a confidential nature it may be communicated to the Accounts Officer personally or confidentially.

(e) In fixing the amount of an advance, the sanctioning authority shall pay due regard to the amount at the credit of the subscriber in the Fund.

Note 1:- When an advance is sanctioned under Rule 16 before repayment of last installment of any previous advance is completed, the balance of any previous advance not recovered shall be added to the advance so sanctioned and the installments of recovery shall be refixed with reference to the consolidated amount.

17. Temporary advance.- A temporary advance may be sanctioned to a subscriber for meeting legal expenses subject to the following conditions, namely:-

(1) (i) The amount of the advance in any particular case shall not exceed three months pay:

Provided that in no case the amount shall exceed half the amount at the credit of the subscriber;

(ii) The advance will be admissible both where the Government servant takes recourse to legal proceedings to indicate his position in regard to any allegations made against him in respect of any acts done or purporting to be done by him in the discharge of his official duties, and also where he is prosecuted in a Court of law by Government in respect of any alleged official misconduct. In the former type of cases the advance from the provident fund shall be in addition to any advance admissible for the same purpose from other Government sources;

(iii) In all other respects the advance under this rule shall be subject to the same terms and conditions as are applicable to other advances.

(2) No advance shall be admissible under this rule.-

(i) Where a Government servant takes recourse to a Court of law in respect of any incidents which is not connected with his position as a Government servant; or

(ii) Where a Government servant may sue Government in respect of any service grievances of his or against the imposition of any penalty on him.]

18. Recovery of Advance.-(1) An advance shall be recovered from the subscriber in such number of equal monthly installments as the sanctioning authority may direct; but such number shall not be less than twelve unless the subscriber so elects, or in any case more than forty. A subscriber may, at his option, repay more than one installment in a month. Each installment shall be a number of whole rupees, the amount of the advance being raised or reduced, if necessary, to admit of the fixation of such installments.

(2) Recovery shall be made in the manner prescribed in Rule 14, for the realization of subscriptions, and shall commence, on the first occasion after the advance is made on which the subscriber draws pay, or remuneration on foreign service, for a full month. Recovery shall not be made, except with the subscriber's consent while he is in receipt of subsistence grant or is on leave for ten days or more in a calendar month which either does not carry any leave salary or carries leave salary equal to or less than half-pay or half-average pay, as the case may be. The recovery may be postponed, on the subscriber's written request, by the sanctioning authority during the recovery of an advance of pay granted to the subscriber.

(3) If an advance has been granted to a subscriber and drawn by him and the advance is subsequently disallowed before repayment is completed, the whole or balance of the amount withdrawn shall forthwith be re-paid by the subscriber to the Fund, or in default, be ordered by the Account Officer to be recovered by deduction from the emoluments of the subscriber in a lump sum or in monthly installments not exceeding twelve, as may be directed by the authority competent to sanction an advance for the grant of which, special reasons are required under clause (c) of rule 16:

(4) Recoveries made under this rule shall be credited as they are made to the subscriber's account in the fund.

(5) No recovery towards temporary advance shall be made during the period of six months immediately prior to the date of retirement of the subscriber.

19. Final withdrawal of Accumulations in the Fund.- (1) When a subscriber quits the service, the amount standing to his credit in the Fund shall become payable to him in Form-8.

Provided that a subscriber, who has been dismissed or removed from the service and is subsequently reinstated in the service shall, if required to do so by Government, repay any amount paid to him from the Fund in pursuance of this rule, with interest thereon at the rate provided in the Rule 15, in the manner provided in the proviso to rule 20. The amount so repaid shall be credited to his account in the Fund.

(2) The Accountant General (A and E), Karnataka on receipt of the application, complete in all respects, in his office will arrange for finalisation of the General Provident Fund Account calculating the interest up to the date of retirement and issue the payment authorization at least 15 days prior to date of retirement, payable on the date of retirement and the Treasury Officer shall issue post-dated cheque to the retiring subscriber as soon as the authorization is received by him without insisting on the personnel appearance of the subscriber in Form-9.

Note (1).-Re-employment after retirement, with or without a break, is a fresh service and not a continuation of previous service.

Note (2).-The authority competent to sanction final withdrawal shall obtain the final withdrawal application complete in all respects from the retiring subscriber six months before the date of his retirement and shall forward it to the Accountant General (A and E), Karnataka, two months prior to the date of retirement, duly recording the necessary certificates regarding the last deductions made, details of temporary advances/partial final withdrawals sanctioned during the last twelve months.

(3) When a subscriber.- (i) has proceeded on leave preparatory to retirement, or, if he is employed in a vacation Department, on leave preparatory to retirement combined with vacation; or

(ii) while on leave, has been permitted to retire or been declared by a competent medical authority to be unfit for further service,- the amount standing to his credit in the Fund shall, upon application made by him in that behalf to the Account Officer, become payable to the subscriber:

Provided that the subscriber, if he returns to duty, shall, if required to do so by Government, repay to the Fund, for credit to his account, the whole or part of any amount paid to him from the Fund in pursuance of this rule with interest thereon at the rate provided in rule 14, in cash or securities or partly in cash and partly in securities, by installments or otherwise, by recovery from his emoluments or otherwise, as may be directed by the authority competent to sanction an advance for the grant of which special reasons are required under clause (c) of rule 16.

(iii) has proceeded on refused leave after superannuation.

20. On the death of a subscriber before the amount standing to his credit has become payable, or where the amount has become payable, before payment has been made.-

(1) when the subscriber leaves a family.-

- (a) if a nomination made by the subscriber in accordance with the provisions of Rule 9 or of the corresponding rule heretofore in force in favour of a member or members of his family subsists, the amount standing to his credit in the Fund or the part thereof to which the nomination relates shall become payable to his nominee or nominees in the proportion specified in the nomination specified in Form-10.
- (b) if no such nomination in favour of a member or members of the family of the subscriber subsists, or if such nomination relates only to a part of the amount standing to his credit in the Fund, the whole amount or the part thereof to which the nomination does not relate, as the case may be, shall, notwithstanding any nomination purporting to be in favour of any person or persons other than a member or members of his family, become payable to the members of his family in equal shares;

Provided that no share shall be payable to-

- (1) sons who have attained majority;
- (2) sons of a deceased son who have attained majority;
- (3) married daughters whose husbands are alive;
- (4) married daughters of deceased son whose husbands are alive;
- (5) married sisters whose husbands are alive;
- (6) brothers who have attained legal majority; and
- (7) judicially separated wife.

if there is any member of the family other than those specified in clauses (1), (2), (3), (4), (5), (6) and (7):

Provided further that, the widow or widows and the child or children of a deceased son shall receive between them in equal parts only the share which that son would have received if he had survived the subscriber and had been exempted from the provisions of clause (1) of the first proviso.

(2) when the subscriber has no family, if a nomination made by him in accordance with the provisions of rule 9 or of the corresponding rule heretofore in force in favour of any person or persons subsists, the amount standing to his credit in the Fund or the part thereof to which the nomination relates, shall become payable to his nominee or nominees in the proportion specified in the nomination.

21. Fund Payable to a Minor.-Where the amount payable under sub-rule 3 of rule 19 to a minor or minors does not exceed five thousand rupees, or where such amount exceeds five thousand rupees, an amount upto five thousand rupees, may be paid to the natural guardian of the minor or minors on their behalf, and where there is no natural guardian, to the person considered fit by the Head of the Department to receive payment on behalf of the minor or minors, without requiring such guardian or person to produce a guardianship certificate, provided the person receiving payment on behalf of the minor or minors executes a bond in the form given in Form-11 along with two sureties undertaking to indemnify Government against loss by any subsequent claim in respect of the said amount. In doubtful cases or in respect of payment of any amount in excess of five thousand rupees, the orders of the Government shall be obtained.

22. Guardian.-Notwithstanding anything contained in Rule 21, where the amount is payable under Rule 20 to a Hindu minor who is a boy or an unmarried girl, the amount shall be paid to the mother who is the natural guardian of such minor under Section 6 of the Hindu Minority and Guardianship Act, 1956 (Central Act 32 of 1956), without taking any indemnity bond unless the Head of the Department or Government considers that the interests of the mother are adverse to those of the minor.

23. Duties of the Accounts Officer.- (1) When the amount standing to the credit of a subscriber in the Fund becomes payable, it shall be the duty of the Accounts Officer to make payment, as provided in Section 4 of the Provident Funds Act, 1925.

(2) If the person to whom, under these rules, any amount or policy is to be paid, assigned, reassigned or delivered, is a lunatic for whose estate a manager has been appointed in this behalf under the Indian Lunacy Act, 1912 the payment or reassignment or delivery will be made to such manager and not to the lunatic.

Provided that where no Manager has been appointed and the person to whom the sum is payable is certified by a Magistrate to be a lunatic, the Accounts Officer may pay so much of the amount as he thinks fit to the person having charge of the lunatic and the surplus, if any, or such part thereof, as he thinks fit, shall be paid for the maintenance of such members of the lunatic's family as are dependent on him for maintenance.

(3) Any person who desires to claim payment under this rule shall send a written application in that behalf to the Accounts Officer. Payments of amounts withdrawn shall be made in India only. The persons to whom the amounts are payable shall make their own arrangements to receive payment in India.

Note.- When the amount standing to the credit of a subscriber has become payable under Rules 18 and 19, the Accounts Officer shall authorize prompt payment of that portion of the amount standing to the credit of a subscriber in regard to which there is no dispute or doubt, the balance being adjusted as soon after as may be.

24. Transfer of the Fund.- (a) If a Government servant who is a subscriber to any other Government Provident Fund, which is a non-contributory Provident Fund, is permanently transferred to pensionable service in connection with the affairs of the State of Karnataka, the amount of subscriptions, together with interest thereon, standing to his credit in such other funds at the date of transfer shall with the consent of the other Government concerned, be transferred to his credit in the Fund in accordance with rules detailed in Annexure to these rules.

(b) If a Government servant who is a subscriber to a Contributory Provident Fund is permanently transferred to pensionable service in connection with the affairs of the State of Karnataka and elects or is required to earn pension in respect of such pensionable service-

- (i) The amount of subscriptions, with interest thereon, standing to his credit in such contributory provident fund at the date of transfer shall with the consent of the other Government, if any, be transferred to his credit in the Fund;
- (ii) The amount of Government contributions, with interest thereon, standing to his credit in such contributory provident fund shall, with the consent of the other Government, if any, be repaid to Government;
- (iii) He shall in exchange be entitled to count towards pension such part of the period during which he subscribed to such contributory provident fund as the Government may determine.

(c) (i) When a subscriber is transferred, without any break in service, to serve under a body corporate owned or controlled by the Government, the amount of subscriptions, together with interest thereon shall be transferred, with the consent of that body and the subscriber, to his new Provident Fund Account under that body:

Provided that in cases where the body corporate does not have any Provident Fund Scheme for its employees or the Provident Fund Rules applicable to such employees do not provide for the acceptance of balances from other Provident Funds the amount in question shall be paid to the subscriber concerned at the time of his permanent transfer to serve under such a body;

Provided further that in cases where the body corporate consents to accept the said amount after the employee concerned satisfies any conditions relating to his employment under such body the said amount may be retained in the Government Provident Fund till such time as such conditions are fulfilled, and the Provident Fund Account of such employees shall cease to be available for operation by such employees from the date of his permanent transfer to such body.

(ii) When a person serving under a body corporate owned or controlled by the Government who was subscribing to a separate Provident Fund maintained by such body corporate is transferred to serve under the Government, such person shall be deemed to be a member of the Fund with effect from the date of such transfer, the balance at his credit in the Provident Fund Account (together with the Employer's contribution, if any and interest thereon) shall be transferred to the Fund as the opening balance of his account in the Fund:

Provided that if he is allowed to count the service under such body corporate for purposes of grant of pension on retirement from service under the Government the employer's contribution with interest thereon shall not be transferred to the Fund but it shall be credited to the Government.

Explanation.-(1) For purposes of this clause "Transfer" includes.-

- (i) cases of resignation from service in order to take up appointment under another Department of the Government or a body corporate owned or controlled by Government without any break in service and with prior permission of the Government, and
- (ii) cases of retrenchment followed by immediate appointment in another Department of the Government or under a body corporate owned or controlled by the Government and the time taken to join the new post shall not be treated as a break in service if it does not exceed the joining time admissible on transfer to the new place of the posting.

(2) For purposes of this clause 'Government' includes both the Central Government and the State Government.

25. Transfer to Contributory Provident Fund.-If a subscriber to the Fund is subsequently admitted to the benefits of the Contributory Provident Fund, the amount of his subscriptions, together with interest thereon, shall be transferred to the credit of his account in the Contributory Provident Fund.

26. Terms and Conditions of Final Withdrawals.-(1) Final withdrawals from the General Provident Fund balances at the credit of the subscribers may also be permitted if it is applied for within twelve months before retirement on superannuation without assigning any reason for applying, for the following purposes:-

- (a) for building, acquisition, reconstruction, or redemption of one house;
- (b) for chronic illness of self or any other family members;
- (c) for the purchase of a house site;
- (d) for meeting the cost of higher education;
- (e) for meeting expenditure on marriage purposes; and
- (f) for making deposit for booking a Car/Motor Cycle/Scooter/Moped etc.;

(2) The concession will be admissible to the employees at any time not earlier than ten years before attaining the age of superannuation or when they have completed twenty years of total service (including broken periods of service, if any), whichever is earlier for the purposes specified in sub-rule (1).

27. Withdrawals.- (1) (a) Withdrawals may be permitted for the purpose of building or acquiring a suitable house including the cost of site and also for additions or alterations to and reconstruction of a house, or for repayment of any outstanding amounts on account of loans expressly taken for the purpose foresaid before the date of receipt of the application for withdrawal.

Note 1.- Final withdrawals from the Provident Fund accumulations for repaying a loan expressly taken for the purpose of acquiring a house or for redeeming the house shall be allowed if the loan was taken not more than twelve months before the date of receipt of the application for final withdrawal.

Note 2.- A subscriber who has availed himself of an advance from Government under clause (b) of sub-rule (1) of Rule 27 or as provided in the Karnataka Financial Code, 1958, or has been allowed any assistance in this regard from any other Government source or from the Housing Board or under the Low or Middle Income Group Housing Scheme or the Life Insurance Corporation of India, shall also be eligible for withdrawal for the purposes indicated in clause (a).

(b) Withdrawal from the provident fund shall be up to ninety percent of the balance of the amount standing to the credit of the subscriber or the actual cost including the cost of the site, or repayment of the loan in that behalf, whichever is least. If, as mentioned above, the amount withdrawn exceeds the actual expenditure or repayment as aforesaid, the excess shall be refunded to the Government forthwith in one lump sum together with interest at 5 percent per annum from the month of such withdrawal by the subscriber for being credited to his account. The actual expenditure incurred in connection with sale or transfer deeds may be reckoned as part of the cost of the house;

Provided that in the case of a subscriber, who has drawn an advance from Government under the Karnataka Financial Code, 1958, or who has availed himself of any other assistance from any other sources such as from the Housing Board or under the Low or Middle Income Group Housing Scheme or the Life Insurance Corporation of India, the sum withdrawn under this sub-rule together with the amount of advance taken from Government or the assistance taken from any other Government source shall not exceed one hundred and twenty-five months pay.

(c) A second final withdrawal may be allowed from the General Provident Fund Account of the subscriber for the purpose of carrying out additions and alternations to or reconstruction of a house already acquired with the help of a withdrawal already made from the General Provident Fund Account under these rules, subject to the condition that the total of both the withdrawals does not exceed half the amount as it stood at the credit of the subscriber in his Fund Account at the time of the first withdrawal and also that the second withdrawal does not exceed the limit of six months' pay.

(d) The house proposed to be acquired, etc, or redeemed by the subscriber to the fund with the help of the amount withdrawn as aforesaid shall be situated at the place of his duty or his intended place of residence after retirement;

(e) Withdrawals will be permitted for the building, acquisition or redemption of one house only and further in these cases only where the Government servant does not already own a house;

(f) The construction, etc., of the house should be commenced within six months of withdrawal of money and should be completed within a period of one year from the date of commencement of construction. If, however the house is to be purchased or redeemed or a private loan previously raised for the purchase has to be repaid, this should be done within three months of the withdrawal;

(g) In the case of construction of a house, the withdrawal will be permitted only in two equal installments, the second installment after the first being authorized by the Accounts Officer, after obtaining from the Head of the Department, a certificate, after verification, regarding progress of construction of the house;

(h) In cases where a subscriber has to pay in instalments for a house acquired or a house constructed through a House Building Co-operative Society or similar agency, he shall be permitted to make a withdrawal as and when he is called upon to make a payment in any instalment. Every such payment shall be treated as a payment for a separate purpose for the purposes of clause (a) of sub-rule (i).

(i) The application should be in Form- 12. The Government servant shall submit an annual declaration in Form- 13 on or before the 31st March in each year and satisfy the Government or the Head of the Department as the case may be, if called upon to do so by the production of tax receipts, titledeeds, etc., that the house remains in his sole or spouse ownership and that while he is still in service he has not parted with the possession thereon by way of transfer, sale, mortgage, except for the purpose mentioned in Note 2 to clause (a), gift, exchange, lease for a term exceeding three years howsoever without the previous permission of the sanctioning authority in writing. The amount withdrawn shall be repayable forthwith in one installment together with interest thereon at 5 percent per annum from the month of such withdrawal by the Government servant if the house is sold or encumbered at any time before retirement without such permission.

(2) Before sanctioning the withdrawal, the Head of the office should satisfy himself and furnish a certificate to the sanctioning authority to the effect that:-

- (a) the amount is actually required for the purpose of building, etc., acquiring or redeeming a house as mentioned above;
- (b) the Government servant possesses or intends to acquire forth-with the right to build on the site on which the house is proposed to be build;
- (c) the amount withdrawn together with such other private savings, if any, as the Government servant may have, would be sufficient to build, acquire or redeem the house of the type proposed;
- (d) the applicant has an approved plan and permits, where necessary, from the local authorities for the purchase of building materials to the extent required and at controlled rates;
- (e) in the case of withdrawal for the purchase of a ready build house, the applicant secures an undisputed title to the house and the land on which the house is build before the purchase price is paid;
- (f) before withdrawals are permitted for the repayment of loans taken from private parties expressly for the purpose of acquiring a house, or for redeeming the house, the applicant has acquired or will acquire an unencumbered title to the house thus acquired;
- (g) The applicant has signed an undertaking in Form-14 or where this form is not suitable, e.g., in cases of redemption of mortgaged premises belonging to the Government servant, in the form as may be approved by the Government indicating the main terms and conditions of the withdrawal.

(3) For the purposes referred to in clauses (e) and (f) of sub-rule (2) above, the Government servant should produce, through the Head of Office or Department, necessary deeds and papers to the sanctioning authority, proving his title in respect of the property under consideration;

(4) The Head of the Department shall be the sanctioning authority for the purpose of this rule in respect of employees subordinate to it when all the terms and conditions for the withdrawal are fulfilled. A case of withdrawal by the Head of Department, or any case necessitating the relaxation of any of the terms and conditions shall be referred to Government in the Finance Department.

(5) The actual withdrawal from the fund will be made only on receipt of an authorization from the Account Officer concerned who will arrange for this as soon as the formal sanction of the Competent Authority has been issued.

28. For the Purchase of a House Site.-(1) Withdrawals may also be permitted either for the purchase of a house-site or for repayment of any outstanding amount on account of a loan expressly taken for the purchase of a house-site before the receipt of the application for the withdrawal provided that the loan was taken not more than twelve months before the date of receipt of the said application.

(2) The amount of the withdrawal under sub-rule (1) shall not exceed Ninety percent of the amount standing to the credit of the Government servant in his account or the actual cost of the house-site, whichever is the less.

(3) If the amount withdrawn exceeds the actual cost of the house-site, the excess shall be refunded to the General Provident Fund forthwith in one lump sum together with interest at five percent per annum from the month of such withdrawal by the subscriber.

(4) The amount of the withdrawal may be allowed in one instalment in cases of outright purchase of a house-site or for repayment of loan earlier taken for the purpose and is not more than three instalments if payment for the house-site is to be made on an instalment basis. The sanction will be issued for the entire amount of the withdrawal the number of instalments in which it is actually to be drawn being specified therein:

Provided that in cases where a subscriber has to pay in instalments for purchase of a house-site through a House Building Co-operative Society or a similar agency, he shall be permitted to make a withdrawal as and when he is called upon to make a payment in any instalment. Every such payment shall be treated as a payment for a separate purpose for the purposes of sub-rule (1).

(5) The house-site shall be purchased within a period of one month of the date of withdrawal or the withdrawal of the first instalment, as the case may be. In fulfillment of the condition, the subscriber shall produce to the Head of the Department the receipts issued by the seller, the House Building Society, City Improvement Trust Board, etc., in token of the amount of the withdrawal instalment having been utilized for making payment towards purchase of the site.

(6) For the purpose of eventual construction of house on site purchased under sub-rule (1), the amount of the withdrawal for the purposes shall not exceed ninety percent of the balance standing to the Government servant's credit on the date of application for the purchase of a site or twelve months' pay as on that date or the actual cost of construction of the house, whichever is the least.

(7) The other provisions enumerated under Rule 28(1)(a) shall apply mutatis mutandis, for the purchase of site.

29. For Meeting the Cost of Higher Education.- (1) The withdrawal may be allowed in the following types of cases in respect of the subscriber, spouse or the dependent children of the subscriber.-

- (a) (i) for education outside India.- Whether for an academic, technical, professional or vocational course;
- (ii) for medical, engineering and other technical or specialized courses, in India beyond the High School stage:

Provided that the course of study is not less than three years;

- (b) the total amount of the withdrawal will be limited to ninety percent of the balance at the credit of the subscriber,
- (c) the withdrawals from the Fund will be permitted once in every six months and not more than twice in any financial year and every such withdrawal shall be treated as a withdrawal for a separate purpose for the purposes of clause (a) of sub-rule (1);
- (d) the withdrawal now permitted will be in lieu of the advances authorized in rule 16(a)(iv) and (v);

Note.- A subscriber who has already drawn a refundable advance under Rule 15 may convert at his discretion, by written request addressed to the Accounts Officer through the Head of the Department or the sanctioning authority, as the case may be, the balance outstanding against it into a final withdrawal on satisfying the conditions laid down under rule 27.

- (e) the officer concerned should satisfy the Government or the Head of the Department, as the case may be, to the effect that in cases, where the portion of the money withdrawn is not likely to be spent within six months of the date during the half year, he may by notifying in writing to the officer concerned, before the expiry of the said period of six months, adjust the excess amount in the proposed withdrawal, provided that such excess amount is not more than 10 percent of the amount utilized and action taken within one month of the expiry of the period of six months; and
- (f) If no further withdrawal is contemplated, any amount withdrawn from the Fund, which is found to be in excess of that actually required for the purpose should be re-deposited by the officer concerned forthwith into the Fund together with the interest at 5 percent per annum due thereon.

(2) Application for withdrawal under this rule shall be made in the form specified, in the Form-15. The Head of the Department shall be the sanctioning authority for the purpose of this rule in respect of the employees subordinate to it when all the terms and conditions for the withdrawal are fulfilled. A case of withdrawal by the Head of a Department or a case necessitating the relaxation of any of the terms and conditions shall be referred to Government in the Finance Department.

(3) The actual withdrawal from the Fund will be made only on receipt of an authorization from the Accounts Officer, who will arrange for this as soon as the formal sanction of the Competent Authority has been issued. After the withdrawal has been made by the officer concerned, the sanctioning authorities will satisfy themselves within six months of the withdrawal that the conditions mentioned in sub-rule (1) above are fulfilled, and the Head of the Department concerned shall obtain a certificate from the officer concerned to that effect and furnish the same to the Accounts Officer.

30. Meeting Expenditure of Marriage Purposes.- (1) The withdrawal shall be permitted for the marriage of the subscriber or and for the marriage of any other family member actually dependent on him.

(2) The amount of withdrawal will be limited to ninety percent of the balance at the credit of the subscriber,

(3) It is not necessary that for whose marriage the final withdrawal is applied for should be actually dependent on the subscriber.

Note-1:- If two or more marriages are to be celebrated simultaneously, the amount admissible in respect of each marriage will be determined as if the advances are sanctioned separately one after the other, and subject to the limit fixed at sub-rule (2);

Note-2:- The final withdrawal is permissible for meeting the expenses connected with the marriage of the subscriber's sons also. The maximum amount of withdrawal should not exceed ninety percent of amount at the credit of the subscriber.

(4) In respect of the same marriage, a subscriber may either withdraw the money in terms of these orders or draw an advance under rule 16 of these rules but not both;

Note.- A subscriber who had drawn before the date of issue of this rule or draws in future a refundable advance under the ordinary rules may convert at his discretion by written request addressed to the Accounts Officer through the Head of the Department or the sanctioning authority, as the case may be, the balance outstanding against in into a final withdrawal on satisfying the conditions laid down in this rule.

(5) The withdrawal may be allowed to the subscriber not earlier than three months preceding the month in which the marriage actually takes place;

(6) The subscriber shall furnish a certificate to the Head of the Department with in the period of one month from the date of marriage or if he is on leave, within one month on return from leave, that the amount withdrawn had actually been utilized for the purpose for which it was intended. If the subscriber fails to furnish the requisite certificate or if the amount withdrawn is utilized for a purpose other than that for which sanction was given, the entire amount together with interest at the prescribed rate, from the month of withdrawal, shall be re-deposited forthwith into the Fund in one lumpsum.

(7) Any amount actually withdrawn from the Fund which is found to be in excess of that actually utilized by the subscriber for the purpose shall be re-deposited forthwith into the Fund together with interest at the prescribed rate in rule 14 from the month of such withdrawal;

(8) Application for withdrawal under this Rule shall be made in the form specified in the Form-16. The Head of the Department shall be the sanctioning authority for the purpose of this rule in respect of the employees subordinate to it when all the terms and conditions for the withdrawal are fulfilled. A case of withdrawal by the Head of a Department or a case necessitating the relaxation of any of the terms and conditions shall be referred to Government in the Finance Department;

(9) The actual withdrawal from the fund will be made only on receipt of an authorization from the Accounts Officer concerned who will arrange for this as soon as the formal sanction of the Competent Authority has been issued.

(10) Where an subscriber applies for the withdrawal of the amount well before the date of the marriage but the application is sanctioned after the aforesaid date or, if sanctioned before that date, the case is received in the Audit Office for the issue of authority for payment after that date, there shall be no objection to the payment of the amount being made after the date of the marriage. The certificate in terms of sub-rule (6) shall be furnished in such cases to the Head of the Department within a month of the actual drawal of the amount from the Fund. Cases in which the withdrawal is applied for after the marriage is over should not ordinarily be entertained.

31. For making deposit for booking a Motor Car/Motor Cycle/Scooter/Moped etc., subject to following conditions.-(1) The Officer's basic pay is Rs.38,100/- p.m. or above for registration of Motor Car and a basic pay of Rs.19,500/- p.m. or above in the case of Motor Cycle/Scooter and of Rs.600/- p.m. or above in the case of moped.

(2) The amount of withdrawal is limited to Rs.3,00,000/- in the case of Car and Rs.50,000/- in the case of Motor Cycle/Scooter/Moped etc., or ninety percent of the amount standing at the credit of the subscriber in the General Provident Fund or the actual amount of registration of the Motor Car/Motor Cycle/Scooter/Moped etc, whichever is less.

(3) The deposit receipt should be produced for verification by the concerned administrative authority within a period of one month from the date of drawal. Failure to do so would entail refund of the total amount withdrawn.

(4) If the Officer does not purchase Car/Motor Cycle/Scooter/Moped etc., or opts out the scheme he should immediately deposit the amount of final withdrawal together with interest received thereon from the manufacturer/dealer into the Provident Fund Account.

(5) The Head of the Department sanctioning authority may allow, in special cases, an advance refundable is not more than 36 instalments in the case of officers who may fall short of the minimum service of fifteen years by a period of not more than six months. All other conditions shall not be relaxed.

(6) The officers who have been allowed advance according to sub-rule (5) above are permitted to convert the outstanding amount of advance into final withdrawal after completion of fifteen years of service.

(7) Such withdrawal shall be allowed only on one occasion and only to those who have completed a minimum period of service of fifteen years including broken periods of service if any. Application for withdrawal under this rule shall be made in the form specified in the Form-17. The Head of the Department shall be the sanctioning authority for the purpose of this rule in respect of the employees subordinate to it when all the terms and conditions for the withdrawal are fulfilled; A case of withdrawal by the Head of a Department or a case necessitating the relaxation of any of the terms and conditions shall be referred to Government in the Finance Department.

The actual withdrawal from the fund will be made only on receipt of an authorization from the Accounts Officer, who will arrange for this as soon as the formal sanction of the Competent Authority has been issued. After the withdrawal has been made by the Officer concerned, the sanctioning authorities will satisfy themselves, within one month of the drawal that the conditions mentioned in sub-rule (4) above are fulfilled.

32. Sanction of withdrawal.-Notwithstanding anything contained in rules 26, 27, 28 and 29 where withdrawal is applied any purposes specified in the said rules, the Government may sanction withdrawal of an amount not exceeding the three fourths of the balance at the credit of the subscriber in the Fund, having regard to the object for which the withdrawal is being made, the status of the subscriber and the amount at his credit in the Fund.

33. Applied for within 12 months before retirement on superannuation without assigning any reason for applying.- (1) Withdrawals may be permitted if it is applied within twelve months before the date of subscriber's retirement on superannuation from the amount standing to the credit in the Fund, without linking to any purpose and conditions to enable him to plan in advance the investment of his savings.

(2) The amount of the withdrawal under sub-rule (1) shall not exceed ninety percent of the balance at the credit of the subscriber. Application for withdrawal under this rule shall be made in the form specified, in the Form-18. The Head of the Department shall be the sanctioning authority for the purpose of this rule in respect of the employees subordinate to it. A case of withdrawal by the Head of a Department or a case necessitating the relaxation of any of the terms and conditions shall be referred to Government in the Finance Department.

34. (To be executed on stamp paper of the value laid down in the Stamp Law in force at place of execution of the documents).

To

The Governor of Karnataka.

In consideration of the Governor of Karnataka (hereinafter referred to as "the Government of Karnataka") having agreed at my request to permit, for the purpose of building or acquiring a suitable house including the cost of the site thereof, withdrawal of the sum of Rs. (Rupees) only from the amount standing to my credit in the G. P. F. under the provisions of Rule 28 (i) (b) of the Karnataka General Provident Fund Rule, 2016, I hereby undertake to observe and perform the terms and conditions contained therein in so far as they are applicable to me and, in particular to comply with the following terms and conditions, namely :-

1. that the amount for which the withdrawal is applied for shall be actually utilized for the purpose of building or acquiring a suitable house including the site thereof;
2. that if the amount permitted to be so withdrawn is in excess of the actual expenditure incurred by me for building or acquiring a suitable house including the cost of the site thereof, the excess amount together with interest thereon at the rate provided for in Rule 28 (i) (b) of the aforesaid Rules, shall be refunded to the Government of Karnataka for credit to my Provident Fund forthwith without demur in one lumpsum whether the same shall have been demanded or not;
3. that the house proposed to be built or acquired by me with the amount so withdrawn shall be situated at my place of duty or where I intend to reside after retirement;
4. that in the event of my building a house, the construction of the house shall be commenced within six months of the withdrawal of the aforesaid amount and shall be completed within a period of one year from the date of commencement of construction or within such further extended period as the Government may in its absolute discretion allow. In the event of a ready-built house being purchased, any loan previously obtained by me for such purpose from private parties shall be repaid within three months of the drawal of such amount or such extended period as maybe permitted by the Government of Karnataka.
5. that in the event of my building a house the right to build on the site on which the house is proposed to be built will be acquired by me forthwith;
6. that approved plans and permits where necessary from the local authorities for the purchase of building materials to the extent required shall be furnished by me;
7. that in the case of a drawal for the purchase of a ready-built house I would secure an undisputed title to the house and the land on which the house is built before the purchase price is paid.
8. that so long as I am in service I shall submit every year a declaration in the form prescribed by the Government on or before the 31st March, that the house so built or acquired continues to be in my sole ownership and possession;
9. that while in service the house so built or acquired shall not be transferred by me be way of sale, mortgage, exchange or gift or on lease for a term exceeding three years or otherwise howsoever without the previous permission of the sanctioning authority in writing.

I hereby declare that my private savings together with the amount permitted to be withdrawn will be sufficient to build or acquire the house of the type proposed and that I do not own any house other than the one which is intended to be built or acquired at the place of my duty or at my intended place of residence after retirement. I further declare that if the house is not purchased or built in accordance with the provisions of the said Rules or if I commit any breach of any of the aforesaid terms and conditions; I shall repay to the General Provident Fund for credit to account the whole of the amount permitted to be withdrawn from the Fund in pursuance of the said Rules together with interest thereon at the rate provided for therein.
